

LARGE TURNOUT EXPECTED AT PIER HEARING TONIGHT

Tonight Gloucesterites in favor of a state fish pier in this city will have a chance to express their views on that subject at the open hearing which will be held at City Hall at 7.30.

The need of this project has been felt for many years, and the chance has now come, when a committee of state representatives and senators will be here to ascertain local sentiment. It is expected that not only those who are directly connected with the fishing interests will be present, but citizens who have the interest of our city at heart will be on hand to boost the city's greatest industry.

Senators Sowle of Bristol, Haley of Essex, Holmes of Norfolk and Plymouth, and Conroy of Bristol, and Representatives McKay of Newburyport, Perry of Brewster, Webber of this city, Woolfenden of New Bedford, Woeke of Methuen, Brickett of Cohasset, Jones of Barnstable, Slowey of Lowell, Ford of Fall River, Smith of Fall River, and Zack of Lynn is the personnel of the committee from the State House.

SPLITTERS GOT FISH TODAY

SEVERAL FARES FROM BOSTON
WHERE MARKET WAS FULL AND DEMAND LIGHT.

Due to the fact that the market at Boston has been glutted with fish the past three days, several fares have been brought to port for splitting and canning. This morning found two trips at the Gorton-Pew canning factory, and two large ones at the General Seafoods Corporation for filleting. With the price down to $1.75 for haddock, probably more fares will be sent to the splitters during the afternoon. Only one of the gill netters lifted their gear yesterday.

ANOTHER DROP IN THE MARKET

BOSTON PIER HAS ANOTHER MIL-LION POUND DAY—EIGHT-
TEEN ARRIVALS.

The fourth successive big day at the Boston fish pier resulted in a further slump in the market this morning. Haddock was down to $1.75 to $2; large cod, $2.50 to $3 and markets, $1.75 to $2.50, all very low with the Lenten season less than a week away. There were 18 arrivals today. Receipts were 1,260,000 pounds of groundfish, 50,000 pounds of mixed fish and another small lot of 1500 pounds of halibut. Fares were larger than they have been for some time and one steamer, the Curlew, was "loaded" with 233,000 pounds, the largest single fare that has been landed at the Hub for some time.

BOSTON MARKET STRONGER AGAIN

HADDOCK UP TO $3.50—RECEIPTS
ARE VERY LIGHT THIS MORNING.

Things were much quieter on the Boston fish pier this morning. There were nine craft at the dock with fares for the half day session. Receipts were small and totalled only 116,000 pounds of haddock, 26,000 pounds of yellow tails and 27,300 pounds of mixed fish. The market was higher. Haddock sold at $3.50; large cod, $3.50 to $5; and markets, $2.50 to $3.

ONE DRAGGER ONLY ARRIVAL

RECEIPTS LIGHT, WITH NO AR-
RIVALS EXCEPT OVERLAND
RECEIPTS YESTERDAY.

One arrival was recorded in port this morning, the shore dragger Angie and Vence with 3200 pounds of mixed fish. A few fish were received overland by the splitters yesterday, and everything had been cleaned up at noon. Gill net receipts were light, but the Edna Fae had a corking good haul of large cod, weighing out 5000 pounds.
